

District Council elections
HT features fresh faces who will challenge veterans and incumbents.

港報 Harbour Times

Policy Politics Business LegCo HT Series Diplomat Opinion Events Subscribe

Follow

Argentines tango into the Argentinian Festival 2015 at Puerta Roja

by Andrew Work | on November 6, 2015 | 0 Comments | in Argentina | Like it

 Like  Share 163 people like this. Be the first of your friends.

Argentinian CG Gustavo Fazzari led the community in welcoming Argentine art to kick off Argentina Festival 2015.

The work of Mariano Ferrante, an abstract master from Argentina graced the opening event for the exhibition of his work, 'Geometric Abstraction'. Mariano Ferrante is "one of the most dynamic and innovative young successors of a long tradition of geometric abstract masters

The Consul General, Gustavo Fazzari proudly kicked off the event with gallery founder Adriana Alvarez-Nichol with the the brilliant and soaring vocals of Diego Edelberg singing the music of his native Argentina, the tango.

The exhibition "Geometric Abstraction" opens November 5th during 'Art Lates SOHO 189' as part of the Hong Kong Art Gallery Association's, Art Gallery Week 2015 programme.

About Latest Posts

ANDREW WORK

Andrew Work is the CEO of New Work Media, publisher of Harbour Times. He has run The Canadian Chamber of Commerce in Hong Kong, founded The Lion Rock Institute and has over 25 years engagement in media, politics, policy and community engagement.

Connect

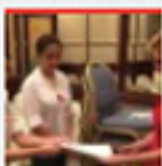

High Tide: Daily morning political round up.

Follow Us

RECENT POSTS

CDNIS recent alum surprise Ontario Premier at event with petition of concerns

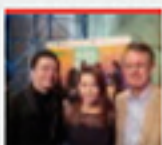

High Tide (November 10th 2015) – Daily political round up

HKers follow Canadian elections, find new PM "charismatic"

High Tide (November 10th 2015) – Daily political round up

Reportage: Russian Romantics attracts diplomats, LegCo, EOC chief